JUST RETIREMENT AWARDED FIVE-STAR RATING IN FINANCIAL ADVISER SERVICE AWARDS FOR 22ND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Just Retirement, a leader in pension risk transfer and retail retirement solutions with more than 700,000 customers, is delighted to announce that it has been awarded a five-star rating in the Financial Adviser Service Awards 2026.

The recognition, achieved in the Pensions and Protection Provider category, marks the 22nd consecutive year in which Just Retirement has received a five-star rating, demonstrating its dedication to providing a seamless experience and an outstanding service to financial advisers.

The Awards are considered the benchmark for service standards within the financial adviser and retail retirement solutions markets, with around 3,000 advisers having their say.

Just Retirement's sustained record of excellence therefore reflects its continued investment in adviser support, digital capabilities and specialist services to help advisers deliver better outcomes for their clients.

Pretty Sagoo, Interim Chief Executive Officer at Just Retirement, commented:

"Delivering an outstanding service to financial advisers remains central to our ambitions to grow Just Retirement into one of the UK's leading retirement businesses. Maintaining these high standards over more than two decades is something we are immensely proud of and reflects our commitment to helping more people achieve a better later life."

Sean Osborne, Director of Retail Distribution at Just Retirement, added:

"It's a fantastic honour for Just to receive a five-star rating in the Pensions and Protection Provider category for the 22nd consecutive year, reflecting our unwavering commitment to supporting advisers and delivering outstanding customer outcomes.

"This recognition is the result of the hard work, dedication and expertise of colleagues across the business, who strive every day to provide the highest standards of service. I'd like to thank all of the advisers who have supported Just over the past 12 months and voted for us over the years. Their trust and confidence continue to inspire us to improve and evolve in everything we do."
